MATHEMATICS AND COMPUTING CONTESTS

Do you enjoy solving puzzles? Love working on math questions or writing computer code? Then this is for you. The University of Waterloo is having their annual Mathematics and Computing contests. The Gauss, Pascal, Cayley, Fermat, and Euclid Math contests, as well as the Canadian Computing Competition are a fun opportunity for participants to explore the potential of mathematics and computer science.

All contests are designed to be accessible to those that have written contests in the past as well as to those who haven't.

Deadline is Feb 13th. For details, see Ms. Lau in the Computer lab Room 128 for the Computing contest and Mr. Nenninger in Room 114 for the Math contests.
