

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 2024 - ANNOUNCEMENTS

EID and RAMADAN

This week some of our Muslim students are celebrating Eid, which concludes a month long fast known as Ramadan. Additionally, some of our Sikh students will be celebrating Vaisakhi, a harvest festival that honours the creation of the Sikh religion. Please join us for our Eid and Vaisakhi celebration in the foyer at lunch today. Come cheer on some of your teachers in a roti making competition, get your henna (also known as mehndi) done and enjoy some delicious snacks.

We encourage you to dress in your cultural attire or any colorful clothing you may. We want to see a vibrant and healthy celebration of community here at Burnsvew. Eid is celebrated for 3 days after a month-long celebration of Ramadan. Eid is celebrated through shared meals and gift giving during family gatherings.
